“ My father was so much more than just a father, grandfather, brother, and friend. He was a mutual understanding between people and their differences.

He was the one in the room who always made sure everyone was happy, smiling, and laughing. In fact, it was his goal to make you laugh before you left the room. In his life, he always put everyone else before him. He was a man of many wise words and was always ready with some quick wit. He shared everything and anything he had and never regretted going without. He lived to make the people he loved happy and comfortable...Oh, and of course, he loved U of M football. Sorry, Ohio State... My dad didn't live for you, just for your losses.

Spending time with his family and those he loved brought him the utmost joy. His grandkids always brought out the best in him.. And his kids, maybe sometimes the worst, but he always had a forgiving heart and was loving and understanding, patient and kind.

If you asked for the world, he would have given it to you- or as close as he could come...unless it was that night's bet at the poker table, then he would have said your odds are as good as his.

Al, my father, your brother, uncle, or friend never took you or your love for granted. He cherished every moment he had with you and always welcomed more. None of us will ever have the privilege to say we had enough time with him, but we were all blessed to share the time we did have with him.

With all my love Dad.

“ My uncle Al...Man what a great person he was. A brilliant man with chess and math and that was no question. The 1st person to introduce me to Motown music. He loved the Temptations and Four Tops. I remember as a kid I always looked forward to uncle Al. He was always so funny and lit up a room when he wanted too. The biggest Michigan Football fan I ever knew as well...I really lost touch with the man after he and Ginger split up but I loved this guy and still do. The world will greatly miss this man. What a great father. I wish my dad was 25% the man he was. May you rest in peace uncle and I cant wait to see you again in heaven. Love you. I hope I can be as good a father as you were on your worst day. Till we meet again...

“ Anthony and Sara
I'm so sorry for the loss of your dad. I remember playing baseball football and racquetball with him when we were young adults. I also remember taking you all to the beach in North Carolina kitty Hawk these are just a few good memories I have of him. I know he's not here in body anymore but the good memories that you have of him will help you though when times are tough for you thinking about him. Your dad was a good man and fun to be around. I know he will be missed by anyone who knew him. I know god has a great plan for him as you both have a guardian Angel watching over you now. The world will be a sadder place without Al.

“ Anthony and Sara,
Your Dad was a wise man, at the same time he had a great sense of humor, he was funny, a jokester, he always loved to have fun, always happy and positive, life doesn't seem fair sometimes and this is one of those moments, he was a great Dad who was loved very much by so many he will be missed terribly. Your Dad loved both of you so very much, he was always proud of both of you no matter what path you took in life, there will never be another Dad like him, no matter where life takes you he'll always be watching over the both of you, he will live in your hearts forever. I'm saddened as well, even though it did not work out for us I truly deeply cared, he will never be forgotten, my heart breaks with you for the loss of your Dad, no words I can say will make the hurt go away. Know that I love you and I hope you both feel surrounded by much love, take comfort and know that I will always be here for the both of you. Love Mom
