“ I have a lot of memories of Uncle Al, he used to come pick me up with Johnny to go and work at the Pizza place, He always made sure that I had something to eat like Pizza or a Sub Sandwich, I am still carrying it around, I am still in my 3rd Trimester after 60 years! There are many more memories, like when we all went to Arizona to visit Grandma & Grandpa Mattiucci, then took a side trip to Las Vegas. So Johnny and myself would kind of go off on our own. I remember uncle Al saying, "don't try and gamble" your not old enough, you will get us kicked out of the Hotel! So what do you think we did anyway?, "pulled a few one arm bandits" We never got caught though! There are so many more, I enjoyed being around him and Aunt Rose, I will miss them both, for now they will all be reunited with my Mom, Aunt Rose and Grandma & Grandpa and everyone else.

We will miss you,
David & Angela Mangiapane and family

“ Uncle Al was one of the kindest, warmest, hardest working people you could ever hope to meet. My favorite memories reflect the times we would visit him at his pizzeria. He was so passionate and I loved hearing his customers tell him how much they loved his pizza.

He and Aunt Rosie were special people. While his passing is heart-breaking, its comforting to know that they are together again. Our most sincere condolences go out to Johnny and his family.

“ I remember March 10, 1987 uncle Al and aunt Rose came to Florida for a visit, the date really stuck with me because I gave birth to my son Dustin that day, uncle Al and aunt Rose sent me a beautiful bouquet of roses
