“ I always admired Alicia for how kind she was to us growing up. She took the time to take us out of the house. My 1st memory of a movie was seeing Lady and the Tramp that Alicia took us to. I remember jumping in her VW bug (I think she had one!), and going for a drive with her to the DQ. She also served as a role model for her pursuit of higher education. I sought an under-grad because Alicia (along with others) showed us that it was possible to gain a degree, even from humble beginnings. She was such a hard worker. I remember her taking calls from her clients on the weekends as a counselor/therapist. Again, always making time for others in need.

“ What great memories to reflect on with Alicia Alicia was always such an encouragement within the programs in which we worked together. Her smile, kindness, and overall countenance was so sweet and helpful, and she was a blessing and made a positive impact upon the lives of so many. Thankful to God for Alicia's life. (Steve Bilotta)
