“ Dear Diane, Ron & Lonnie.,

I first knew Alison when the Hunters moved in two doors from us. She was a toddler about three years old. All of the Moms on Wilmington Ct. bonded immediately. All of the neighborhood kids loved our pool and we spent many Summer afternoons together. Nachos for the kids and Hummers for the Moms. One time Alison put her head through our wrought iron railing to look down the stairs and believe it or not it took all of the Moms together to get her unstuck without calling the fire department. Which just happened to be across the street. Why do the good die young? She was a happy loving child that grew to be a beautiful woman. who was loved by many. I wish I could ease your pain. RIP Sweet Alison.

“ No daughter was more loved by parents than Alison was. She was cherished. I worked with her father for many, many years. What a beautiful girl and he spoke about her all the time. I knew Diane through Ron and he talked about his family with love. God Bless this family.
