“ My Dearest Baba, there are no words but Thank you for always loving us and teaching us from right and wrong. You were the strongest woman I've ever met. You worked so hard all your life to protect and nurture your family. I'll miss our visits and snap chat pictures and most of all the love I seen in your eyes when you looked at our kids. Ryan and Julia loved you so much. We all loved you too much, and we knew you loved us too much too. These memories will be cherished forever. A special thank you to my Teta Julie and Tetin Aco for welcoming her into there home and taking care of her right till the end. ❤️ Till we meet again. Rest In Peace Baba ❤️🙏🙏

“ Baba Angje accepted me as her granddaughter-in-law with open heart and arms, no questions or judgements. She always made me feel like I belonged. Baba had a way of making everyone feel like they belonged. She was self sacrificing and hard working.
In her broken English she used to say to our family,
“I love you too much! You're up here,” gesturing upward,
”Baba down here.”
Gesturing down.
And then we would inevitably argue who loved the other more too much and who was lower or higher.
You were teaching us your selfless love.
Baba, No arguments now. You're now the one up there and we are down here, but you're looking after us all, in your selfless way that you always have. Guiding us with the memories of you and what we've learned from you. I hope we all make you proud.
We love you always!
Sarah
