“ We have been neighbors for many years. We shared our children growing up and then our grandchildren. Through it all (power outages, snow storms, and whatever else was given us) we have remained friends. I cannot recall one bad word ever said about Tony by anyone. We will miss his friendly smile and loving personality. Joan and Gary

“ We grew up across the street from Mr. Tony and he was such an integral part of my childhood. He always was family--gave the speech at my wedding. My heart is breaking right now but smiling at all the amazing memories of how he made us feel when we we're lucky enough to be in his presence. Amazing human being and I'm honored to call him my friend.

“ Some men are poets, authors, artists, and composers. Grandpa Tony was a genius when it came to making us feel like very big 'grown-ups'. Every time we went to his house, we were given a shadow boxing lesson in the kitchen. We grew up watching Ali, Leonard, Hearns and Hagler on the floor in front of his Lazyboy, while he and dad gave a running color commentary better than Cosell's. We were totally enamored with the picture of the handsome GI (Sgt. Tony Parisi) on top of the console TV. We were filled with pride with thoughts of his time in the service, and we venerated and tried to emulate him. We all walked taller, talked kinder, and were BETTER by knowing Tony Parisi. We love him and will miss him until the time we are together again, without a doubt. Praying for family and friends who are grieving. Phil. 4:7
