“ What an amazing lady. Whenever I came home to visit my parents, whom lived across the street, it was never more than a few hours before I was in their living room catching up! She always had a quick story and a thoughtful and encouraging word. I will miss her and think of Barb often.

“ I met Barb when I became friends with Rachelle in 6th grade. She was kind, always had a smile on her face and an endearing southern drawl. But more than that, I saw a strong, hard working woman raising 2 children on her own while instilling values of responsibility, compassion and honesty into Rachelle and Ron. I was fortunate to have a wonderful conversation with her at Emily and Reid's wedding. It was delightful catching up and reminiscing about the "old days". She was "dressed to the nines" (had more fashion sense than I ever will!), and was so happy to be at the wedding. Barb obviously loved her family very much. She will be missed.

“ Barb entered my life in the summer of '71, when I met Rachelle. Barb would become a 2nd mom to me as Rachelle and I walked through life (elementary, middle/high school, weddings, children and funerals) together. Barb and my mom were kindred spirits in many ways and together formed a village. I will forever remember Barb's kindness, laugh and perseverance. She set a wonderful example for her children and the many lives she touched ❤️
