“ *To the family of our cousin barb
She was one of our best 1st cousins that we had in our family. She will be missed by all of us. She always had a kind word to say to all who knew her & would always pray 🙏 for you weather you asked her to or not. A very devoted wife and sister & grandma who love to cook.
RIP cuz & remember

“ To the Quayhackx family,

Our sincere condolences to you and your family for the sudden loss of your mother, grandmother and sister Barbara.

I had the pleasure of meeting Barbara at the Macomb County Rec. Center pool. We would meet at 6:00 AM, walk the Lazy River, talk and laugh at just about everything. Barb knew everyone at the pool. She would always be the first to introduce herself if someone new came to the pool and made sure they felt welcome.

Barb will be missed but never forgotten!

Barb is now with her husband of 50 years Paul. Both have filled their obligations here on earth and have now moved on to their spiritual life.

May God bless you and your family!

Regards,

Ken & Sharon Koliba
