“ Jer, Rose, Christina, Ang, Tonia, and Maria, I am so sorry for your loss. One of the lasting memories I have of your mom was when Vicky and Jerry brought her over to my new house to watch Trump Card on PPV she was so into it and was cracking us all up. Me and Carl set up a couch for her close to the TV so she could hear it good. She loved all of you very much.

“ Antonio and I remember visiting Nonna when we first started dating. We have always loved to go and see her! Even though she was the most amazing cook, filling her recipes with so much love, she would give us a little cash to run up and get KFC for the three of us to share. A funny memory we will never forget. Just recently we were blessed enough to tell her that we were expecting our first baby girl. We know you already loved her so much, and you are going to watch over her as her guardian angel. Such a loving Nonna that filled our lives with so many unforgettable moments. We miss you deeply. Love Antonio and Ashley

“ We were always welcomed as family. Enjoyed our times with her, drinking coffee, eating dinners and worshiping together. She had a love of Jesus, family and friends. She always let you know what she was thinking. Our times will always be remembered as CHERISHED & APPRECIATED. We will rejoice and be glad that one day we will meet again. RIP Love Bill, Edie, Josh & Jenna Davis xoxo

“ What bring people together?

FOOD
