“ I have known Clara Lee for 35 years. We worked together at Michigan bell. And even after we both retired, we kept in touch across the miles with cards and telephone calls. Those telephone calls could last hours. It was an honor to know a person like Clara Lee. She was one in a million. Even though in the last few years her body was crumbling her mind was as sharp as ever. She loved her family beyond words, and was incredibly generous. She was kind, trustworthy, good religious person. She told me that she remembered me in her Rosary everyday. It was only a week before her passing that I spoke with her and received a birthday card from her. It was as if she knew the end was coming. She said Arlene don't forget when I die don't cry for me because I will be happy. Of course I'm crying because I will miss her. Who else is going to remember me in a rosary daily. Who else is available via telephone precisely at 7:30 in the evening. Clara Lee your work is over your worry is over, your pain is gone. Rest in Peace Child of God!
