“ CLAUDIA was like a daughter to me she was in our house all the time. September's dad always called her his other daughter. We are sad to hear of her passing but happy to know that she is finally out of pain sending prayers and love to her children and her husband love Dorothy and Jim Dell

“ CLAUDIA and I have been friends for 57 years we learned how to ride bikes together how to swim together how to play dodgeball together and so many other things. She lived one door away for me and even if we were grounded we could lean out of the windows on the upper floors and still hollered to each other which we did often. CLAUDIA and CINDY and I spent countless hours listening to our favourite music and painting our nails and toenails. When Claudia And I married our husbands we soon found out that having children was not going to work. So we both pursued adopting our beautiful Korean Asian babies at fairly similar times. When her beautiful daughter Melissa came off the plane I was the lucky one who got to carry her to CLAUDIA and LARRY an honour that I never underestimated. We felt so lucky that we had two beautiful children a boy and a girl

When CLAUDIA got the diagnosis that she had MS it was devastating to everyone who knew her but little did we know how horrible this disease was. It's very difficult to watch your friend suffer the way she did while her mind was still very alert her body was failing her every day. She thought a long and difficult fight but is finally at peace with her mom and dad and her brother. It's those who are left behind who are sad because CLAUDIA is finally free of pain. Love you my friend I will see you again

“ I first met Claud when we were 5 years old. We went to Our Lady Queen of Heaven grade school together. Living on the same street we also were friends with September. The 3 of us had a blast growing up. Spending our summers at Lipke Park. We'd leave our homes in the morning and we'd be home before the street lights came on at night, ( cause that's when Claud had to be home). Such fond memories. You're in God's arms now.
