“ Colleen was a loving and generous woman. She always kept the conversation going and was quick to tell a joke. No one knows the bodily pains she suffered, but she still wanted to go out to eat or shopping. Fara, you were a God- sent angel to her and your father, keeping them safe and taking care of their home so that they could continue to live there when they could not physically do it themselves. God bless the Saputo family.

“ I remember Mrs. Saputo as a great mom not to just her own kids, but to the neighborhood friends. I think of her every time I hear Margaritaville. She will be greatly missed. I'm so glad she got to meet one of my kids and for helping me to reconnect with Fara after too many year's of not seeing each other. Love you Fara. 🙏😭

“ I would first like to send my deepest condolences to all the Saputo children and family. I would like to say a special heartfelt, I'm deeply sorry and it's amazing how much we've been through these past 7 years to Fara and a thanks for always being there. Next to Colleen aka Hon-Hon, who was one of my very first friends . We met at 4.years old and kept on going and going for years. I'll always remember the very happy times we had in our childhood with each other. They were truly some of my best times I ever had. And to the rest of you, I have silly memories of each one of you, but for now I want to send you all my families deepest condolences and prayers. Your mother will be deeply missed by all of us still remaining at the other corner house. With heartfelt sympathy, Marie Walsh (Samko)
