“ I haven't gotten to see my godparents much in the past 20 years as I became an adult but I have always related with them more than they could possibly know.

I am so sorry Uncle Jim and I know words cannot ever offer the condolences needed but I am truly devastated for your loss of wife, best friend, and partner in life. I also know Aunt Cindy is free of pain now and playing one of the hot slot machines up where she is residing and hitting big.

There was a time when you both were at mom and dad's house about to go out to dinner and I was headed downtown to one of the casinos or Canada and in discreet and true awesomeness Aunt Cindy palmed me a $50 kissed me on the cheek and told me to have a great time and win big. We all won big having Aunt Cindy in our lives. Godspeed Aunt Cindy.

Your Godson

“ Dear Jim and Family,

I can't find the words to say how sorry I am, and how much Cindy will be missed.

Cindy and I were friends for 45 years. I first met her when I was new at the Chrysler Division office. We were sitting in the lunch room and she was so nice to me. I knew at that time we would be great friends. She would often say to me "I've known you since John (my son) was nine years old". Cindy and Jim have been great friends, and they have a wonderful supportive Family.

My Heart goes out to you all. Love, Mary

“ Jim,

I am so sorry for your loss. Cindy was such a sweet person and I always enjoyed her stories, which often involved Jim doing something that made Cindy laugh! I spent many years working with Cindy at Chrysler and after she retired I always looked forward to our Christmas dinner with the Chrysler ladies.

Cindy will be deeply missed!

“ Cindy and i bowled together the last 5 years. She was always pleasant and interested in learning about your life. When my son in law was diagnosed with a brain tumor Cindy asked about how he was doing and made me feel at ease knowing the oncologist matt had was Cindys too and how she was so positive about Dr. Porter. A lovely lady and Cindy will be greatly missed. Penny Ries
