“ I was proud to call Donna my friend. She was a compassionate, caring, loving person with the gift of gab. She was an artist who I got to see in action when helping her with senior citizens, teaching them to paint. She also sewed bags for veterans to put their phones in during and after hospital stays. Most recently she recycled greeting cards for service men and women. Donna painted on canvas, glass, wood. Sold some of her items in a store that she owned for a time and gifted many items over the years. Some of those items in my home will always remind me of her talent, stories and laughter.
Donna loved her family and was a great parent, aunt, grandmother and great grandparent, doing her bragging of accomplishments to whomever would listen. She accepted additions to the family with love and nonjudgement. She was loved by many and will remain in many hearts with stories and fond memories.

“ I don't have the words to express the loss of this beautiful amazing women. She was my cousin, but to me she was like a mother. She took me in when I had no place to go and changed my life. She made me apart of her wonderful family, and I will always be great full for that special time in my life. I will miss her smile and laughter, and her voice. When I spoke with her no matter what was going on her voice always comforted me. She will be truly missed, but the memories will always be with me. My you now Rest In Peace Donna, until we meet again. I love you and will miss you.

Love, Jan

“ My memories of Donna go back along way. I was very young but I remember her wedding to my brother Earl and I remember how mad I was because I couldn't stay long at the reception. She was the most beautiful bride and I didn't want the magic to end. In later years she was always helpful and a huge encouragement to me. She took pride in my accomplishments and was just about the most enthusiastic person I knew. I will miss her smile, her laughter, her heart felt conversations and even her spaghetti. Her life ended too soon and in a horrible way during a horrible time of separation from those we love. Her pain has ended but ours will remain for a long time. By Gods grace we will gain new strength with each new day. Our loss is great but God is greater and He alone will sustain us in our time of need.
