“ Dear auntie (and godmother) thank you for being such a special part of my life! So many birthday and holiday memories to cherish! All day (and night) shopping trips with mama. Your live and kind spirit was obvious to all who met you it comes to mind all the long conversations you had with mom on the phone, especially after spending the day together! You alwaYs had something new to talk about I know your reunion with all our departed family is joyous. Please give them all our love

“ Auntie Elsie, you are loved and missed! You always had a kind and loving heart. It makes me smile when I remember visiting and you would always appear from your back room with a special gift/treat. I think you could have opened up your own store! I hope now in heaven your new hair dresser will style your hair “just right”! Thank you for a lifetime of treasured memories. Love Elaine and Mark.

“ We will miss you auntie❤️. Your warmth, kindness and generosity was always appreciated. I have so many fond memories but one of my favorites was when we were all at Big Boys during strawberry month and auntie said “ Oh, it’s okay to eat the pie, just don’t eat the crust.” Everyone burst out laughing. Every time I eat pie I think of that moment. And of course, I need to mention the way auntie always said uncle’s name “Andrew” just “Andrew” and uncle always knew exactly what he needed to do. This always made me chuckle inside! There is great comfort in knowing auntie and uncle are together again. Oh, the stories he has to tell her! Love always, your niece Diane and family.
