I think you might look up the word "stoked" - it's not appropriate for this situation.

“ I only knew Frank for a short period from 1997-1999 during one of the difficult periods in his life, which is apparently why our friendship was not long-lasting. During the period we were acquainted I found him to be a sensitive and caring person. Rest In Peace, Frank....I'm sure you are in a much better place now.

My deepest condolences to the Ligori family. Franco was such an amazing person and a true gem. It was such a great honor to have worked with Franco for 20 years at NWA/Delta in HNL. His quick wit, laughter, and bright smile brought so much joy to many. Franco, I loved every conversation and every time we saw each other in AMS.. the laughter was endless. My heart is broken in a million pieces and you will be missed by all. R.I.P sweet Franco.

“ Franco and I met many years ago at NWA/DELTA. Franco had such a kind and caring way about him, that becoming friend's was such an ease. I will miss his smile and all the laugh's. I always knew when flying with Franco that we would be having a good trip. We would walk around town, enjoy the sight's, and would meet some very nice people along the way. Some of my nicest times were when we had our debriefings after a flight, running around a grocery store gathering food and beverage's to share with everyone. The times when we sat down to have a bite with the crew or by ourselves. It was an adventure trying new things and just enjoying the company. We lost one of the "Best", but you will forever be in my heart. God Bless you Franco! My deepest sympathy and condolences to your family!

“ *Franco was a core friend at work and someone I knew I could count on no matter how much time had passed
Accepted me without judgment and that's something I'll always value and appreciate.
I meet Franco on his first India trip.
It was when Boston still had the trip on the 747..when we would pick up 4 Detroit crew in Amsterdam.
I took him all around and opened the door to India to him.
Bonded and retained friends ever since always connected by that experience.
Too young to leave.
Peace to you my friend to your family and to all those who your life touched.*
