BOSCARINO, Frank John.

Age 66. March 13, 2022. Adored husband of his wife for 42 years, Nancy (nee Cholish) Boscarino. Beloved father of Theresa (Dusten) Wright and Mary (Evan Fisher) Boscarino. Doting grandfather of Dusten and Ava Wright. Loving son of Frank and Lorraine Boscarino. Dear brother of Steve (Jane) Boscarino, Mary (Matt) Sauve, Patty (Vince) Bellomo, Bob (Michele) Boscarino, Sarah (Don) Letosky, Ann Boscarino and Tom Boscarino. “ Uncle Frank was a joy to be around, always keeping it light and making everyone laugh. In recent years, we would spend Father's Day at my parents' house, which was near his birthday. I will always remember those parties with him sitting outside the garage, everyone gathered in a circle shooting the sh...just chatting. He'd always comment about how my mom was doing too much and had too much food, and of course there was the delicious key lime pie that he and Aunt Nancy would bring. Father's Day will never be the same, and neither will any of the big Boscarino parties. He will be missed dearly. My deepest condolences to Aunt Nancy, Theresa, Mary, and all those that love him.

“ My Uncle Frank and Godfather was an amazing person he was always so kind and loving and he was the kind of person that made others better just by being around him. My Uncle Frank had a huge love for the Dallas Cowboys and he would always try to convince others of how they were the best. You will be missed and always loved. May God watch over you! 🙏🏻✝️

“ So sorry to hear about the passing of my Uncle Frank. He had a big heart, and loved his family very much. I remember 35 even 40 years ago how kind Aunt Nancy & Uncle Frank were to myself and my siblings. Condolences from my family to yours. Michelle Sauv 

“ I will forever be thankful for the friendship Frank showed my husband Brian, during a time where there was very little to be happy about. But somehow, those 2 became fast friends, and the dialysis room became a funny place to be. They brought life into that building and everyone around them was dragged into their world of sports, family, comedy and politics. Frank and his family touched our hearts. And I'm forever grateful for the smiles he provided and the compassion and love he showed. He will be sorely missed and remembered forever. Your star will burn brightly, against Heavens velvety night. Fly high and free Frank.

“ We're so sad uncle Frank has passed and he will be greatly missed by all that knew him.

Uncle Frank was a great story teller, of course he'd exaggerate a bit but it added to his stories. Lol. We loved hearing about his love of FL and swimming with lemon sharks. I'll always remember our family pool parties and Christmas Eve parties. at Grandma and grandpas house off Moravian.

Uncle Frank loved all his girls so much and it was easy to see. He's had a rough 5 years but fought hard to be here as much as he could. Watching him take Theresa down the aisle and dance with her in September was so special.... Not a dry eye in house.

He was a patriotic guy, liked history, loved the Dallas Cowboys, loved FL and warm weather and most of all... loved family.

Aunt Nancy, Theresa and Mary hold onto all your memories and good times and they will help bring you peace. May God bless and comfort you in the days, weeks and months ahead. We love you!
