“ I'm so sorry to hear of the passing of Uncle Fred. My memories of our big family gatherings and Uncle Fred's deep, powerful laugh. When I was little, he seemed like a movie star. Fred was a good man, who loved his family. All my love to Aunt Gladys and my very special cousins.

“ So sorry for your loss Lawson family! My best memory of Fred was our wonderful card games we all player at their home. Fred would get a big kick out of me for forgetting to say "Last Card". It took awhile for me to remember to say last card after losing my quarters. Fred was a wonderful man, and I'm very thankful to have the opportunity to have many memories of Fred. RIP Fred Lawson.

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to Aunt Gladys and family. I have very fond memories of Uncle Fred. His humor always made a room full of people laugh. Seeing Aunt Gladys and Uncle Fred together was always a joy. My Dad was very close to them both and I love hearing all the stories of moments they shared together. He will forever be missed.
