“ Gabriele (Gabe to me) was a friend, a lovely person to know, and one that was fun to help out when help was needed. She would always watch over our home when we went somewhere, even if we did not ask her to. There was a time we were gone for a few days and did not expect a package that turned out to be rather large. When we returned, she called me to get it only to find out she had to drag it across the street. She always had some kind of joke or saying that would make me laugh. May God Bless her and may she rest in peace. John Satawa
