“ I first met Georgette sitting in chair reading a book. Our next meeting she was reading a book. I called her the book lady. I loved our conversations from music to new technology to everyday life. Even played euchre with her a lot of fun. Miss her and will include her in my prayers. Chris Fanfalone

“ Our deepest condolences to Georgette's family. She was one of the sweetest people I have ever met and had the pleasure of knowing for over 50 years. She was a gentle soul, loved her family and made everyone feel right at home in her presence. She was a treasure, I miss her already. Love, Pam & Dave
