“ Grandpa, you were the light in so many people’s lives. One of the strongest men I know. A man we could count on for anything no matter what it was. Always working hard and making sure your family was together. You valued your family more than anything. The unconditional love you showed us makes it so hard to lose you. You always made sure everyone felt special and included. Always making sure everyone knew they were welcome to dinner on Saturdays, handing out candy to all the kids in the neighborhood and videoing every birthday party with your huge camcorder you had to rest on your shoulder because it was so big. Thank you for everything grampy. My heart hurts losing you here on Earth but I know you’re in heaven watching over your family just as you’ve always done. I miss your smile and I miss your winks. I promise to live with all the values that you taught me. I love you grandpa forever and always! 89 years just wasn’t enough. 💔 Miss you so much. Love, Heather xoxo ❤️💕🙏🏻👉🏻
