“ Sympathy to Glenn's family and friends, and especially to our friend Nancy McPherson. Glenn was our boating friend for many years, and we often played pinochle with Glenn and Nancy. The last time I saw Glenn was on the dock about two weeks ago. I was doing some chores on our sailboat Spirit, and Glenn stepped aboard to say hi. We sat in the cockpit and had a nice conversation for 15-20 minutes. I complimented him- he had lost a lot of weight since I last saw him. He said: "I had to lose some weight"! As he was leaving, Glenn gave me a hug and thanked me for being his friend. He had never done that before, and I realized that he may have thought that he would never see me again. How true!

We will miss Glenn, especially we will miss his big smile, his constant interest in others, and his magnificently positive attitude. Unfortunately Pam and I are away this week so we will not be able to attend his memorial service today, however, you will all be in our thoughts and prayers today.

Blessings,

Robb Sharrow (and Pam)

“ Glenn, you are missed dearly. Doris and I are truly honored we got to meet you almost five years ago when you moved in on our street. Immediately you got involved with the community HOA and made our small community so much better. Every day you met all of us with a Big Smile and a Great Big HELLO! We appreciated each time we got the chance to get together with you and with Nancy. Truly a kind, positive, and "good" man. Our condolences to the family. We are very sorry for your loss. Many down here in Naples have discussed how they think of you every day. I hope your watching down on us and can see how everyone loved you. Thank you for being part of our life.

Please be assured of the brother's prayers for the entire Housey family during this great time of grief. I have placed Glenn's name at the tomb of Blessed Solanus Casey. “ Glens enthusiasm for the boating life was contagious and will be sorely missed. The Lord is lucky to have such a happy man as were we, every time we met on Dock 3 at Windmill Pointe Marina. May his happiness for the boating life carry on in all of us.

“ Last time I saw Glenn was in 2020 when on my way south on Stella Maris my first mate Scott and I met up with him in Naples. Together we enjoyed a concert by the US Navy band and got Glenn to know being quite the patriot singing along: he's gone to be a soldier in the army of the Lord...Peter & Hedda “ Glen's bellow, "How ya do-innnnnn!" will forever echo along Dock 3 at the Windmill Pointe Park Marina.

His love of life and shared enthusiasm were truly infectious. There is a void, now. RIP, good friend.

“ When Glen first came to my house and met my friend and his wiener dog Oscar he said ok ok you can give me kisses just no french kisses to the dog. 🧡. He was a great man and my heart goes out to all of his friends and family members.

Cousin Glen spent many hours with my Mom and Dad and myself in our family home on Berkshire in Detroit.

It was Glen who recognized that my Mom was having eye problems when she was driving down the middle of the road - not to the right side. It turned out she had macular degeneration and I feel to this day he probably saved her life and probably others!!!

We were able to visit with Glen and Nancy several times at our cousin Joe and Liz Housey's home in FL.

Sending hugs and prayers to all of the family during these challenging times.

PS

I can hear him saying "It's all good!" That is what I think of when I think of Glenn. I am so lucky to have had him as such a good friend on boating trips, dinners, pinochle, and swimming off the boat!

Glenn was a very generous man. If he saw a friend in need, he would reach out quietly to help them. He never ever waited to be asked and his thoughtfulness was appreciated.

Deb and I had many a great time sailing on C-BABE with Glenn and Nancy up until recent years when multiple leg surgeries made it difficult for him to board our boat. After that, we have still had lots of fun playing Euchre with them. During Euchre, Glenn is the only guy I ever knew who would call trump even if he had none! We all teased him for that. He would just laugh it off and do it again whenever he got the chance.

RIP Glenn. We miss you already.
