“ Nino has been a dear friend of mine for a very long time. I remember fondly our conversations about life and family. Nino had a heart of gold and his compassionate heart touched everyone he met. His mechanical skills and his broad knowledge of machining was something to behold. He loved his family so much and he sacrificed his personal life for the benefit of others. May God bless and take your eternal spirit to heaven because you surely deserve it. I love you and I will miss you and I'm a lucky man to have known you.

“ I am very saddened to hear Nino passed away. Truly unmatched mechanical wit. I have never known an individual with such mechanical ability. He could repair, weld, machine and diagnose any mechanical issue. Fond memories of Nino playing pool at the Divito's home. He'd love to order Penna's Pizza, drink wine and tell jokes. A very generous person, would help anyone that asked. God Bless my friend, rest In Peace.

“ I am deeply saddened to hear that Nino passed away. We have such fond memories of Nino from my childhood. He was always willing to help out and my parents reminded me of the many times he came over to repair our washer and dryer, or any other appliances as Nino could fix anything. Or, that he installed the A/C unit at our family home in Warren. I will always remember that he would invite us to the Open House events at the GM plant in Warren, and he would take us on a tour of the plant and give us all sorts of goodies to take home. He loved to tell stories and jokes and we will always remember the times spent with him. I'm sorry I'm not able to attend his funeral. The Corsetti family is in our thoughts and prayers during this time. Rest in Peace Nino.

“ The Corsetti Family have been our neighbors for more than 40 years. Our whole family hold so many memories of them. Mr. Corsetti and his garden...the biggest tomatoes and always working in the garage on some beautiful wooden project. Mrs, Corsetti hanging her laundry out to dry and always smiling at our children...’ bona bambino’s’ she would say. Carlo telling the stories of his childhood in Italy during World War II..how his father went to war and then was a prisoner, how Carlo was left to take care of the family. Nino was a dear dear man....everywhere we went with him someone knew him...he was a friend to all. He would laugh and tell stories.We will miss breakfasts with Nino ...scrambled eggs and ‘smashed’ potatoes usually finishing it off with a slice of lemon meringue pie. Nino loved to tell the story of his leaving home at 17 to find his way in this world, with his suitcase and a bit of money. Venezuela then to Detroit where he always found a job because he could do just about anything and if he couldn’t he was a fast learner. Then he would laugh that great laugh of his. As he always told us ‘ I don’t fight with no one’ ...everyone loved Nino. Glen will miss his ‘goomba’ as for me ‘mama Mia’ I will miss him. I think the thing I will miss the most is the twinkle in his eye when he said my name....❤️❤️❤️

Rest In Peace dear friend.

“ Sending my condolences to Nino's family. Nino met my dad (Anthony DiVito) in the 60' s at R C Mahon Co. . They became immediate friends because my dad could speak Italian. After R C Mahon shut down, Nino got a job at GM, and soon after he got my dad a job there too. Nino could fix anything, cars, washing machines , dryers, refrigerators, dishwashers, installed furnaces, air conditioning he certainly was a mechanical genius. We sure had alot of good times with Nino. He helped everyone in our family in some way or another. Did I mention he liked to sing . Bless your heart Nino for all you did for us. Be at peace in heaven with your loved ones and paisano's . Sorry I'm not able to attend the funeral . Toni Ann

Sorry to break everyone's spirits here. Nino was a creep who tried to attack me when I was a child. Let your mind wander into that territory and that is the unspeakable truth that he tried to get away with me. I never told my parents because I did not want them to get arrested for bringing personal justice to a predator. May his soul be turned away from Heaven and go to the depth of dark eternity.

“ I will never forget you Kumbari. You did everything for us, from building us mini bikes when I was a child, to installing an air conditioner on my home some 30 years later. You were my Grandpa Divito's best friend. Now you can join him. Rest in peace. Mike Petrella

“ We are so saddened to hear of dear Ninos passing. What a guy he was! If he could help you out with something he would. He fixed my garbage disposal 30 years ago so Tony and I go way back as friends of Nino. Tony used to be so happy to see him come to Cafe Piccirilli back in the day. They would share some stories and a drink or two and laugh til it hurt! Nino had a infectious laugh and always a gentleman. RIP our friend, you will be missed. Sandy & Tony Piccirilli Sr.

“ My deepest condolences to the Corsetti family in this time of sorrow. This terrible covid situation is preventing me from being there in person to give my support, but not in spirit. You and your family will be in my thoughts and prayers.

“ To the Corsetti Family....We are saddened to hear of Nino's passing. He was a great guy and always laughing. He had the best laugh on earth. Nino and I shared the same birthday and when we lived in Warren, he would come by and we would celebrate our birthdays with il bicchierino. Rest In Peace Nino.
