“ Ida and my grandmother, Angie DiGiovanni were two peas in a pod, so to speak. Ida was considered part of our family.

My sister and I have many sweet memories with the two of them.....making cannolis, sharing laughter, and being each other's support.

When my grandma passed, Ida was essentially the closest I could get to feeling like I was with my grandmother because they were so similar. Even had the same hairstyles. Every time Ida came to our family functions, we would chat about my grandma Angie and it always seemed as though she had tears in her eyes even though she was smiling.

I loved the warmth and goodness that was Ida...the old school ways of hospitality and the remembrance of my childhood with those two beautiful ladies.

I am very sad that I did not get to hug her before she left, or tell her how much I really loved her and how much she meant to me.....

It is bittersweet looking at the pictures of the olden days and wishing I could go back to that simpler time.

But, I celebrate her now being reunited with all of the people that have crossed before her. I celebrate the shedding of all grief and sadness of being in the human experience.....to a joy and happiness so abundant.....

I celebrate her in the arms of Jesus and endless journeys of light.

We celebrate Ida.

Love,

“ She was the best of friends with my mother Angie Di Giovanni. They drove to California together in a Corvette and enjoyed many fun times together. She was like family to us. Jack, Mike, Carol and I loved her very much.

The love of Ida lives on in our hearts. The gaze of love in her eyes, the sweet sincerity of her smile, and the lasting impression of the beautiful woman she was are memories carved into my soul forever. I will miss you Ida. God is holding you now and the angels are joyful because a good and gentle soul has made her mark upon the world.

“ She watched me when I was a baby and I have nothing but the best of memories of her. She was a closest lifelong friend to my mom Olimpia (Lee) Scianimanico. There are so many childhood memories of our families together. She was always so thoughtful and as recently as the last couple weeks , sent my dad a birthday card. We love you and will miss you Aunt Ida. Give my mom a hug for me, I know she is happy to be with you again!

“ Auntie Ida was always in my life as long as I can remember! She was always doing something special for me liking making drapes for my home, sewing adorable outfits and coats for my young daughters. She would send me special Sicilian family dishes that she cooked like; couscous, cusadaydees, fig cookies, etc. These were the traditional foods we ate as I was growing up and she took over these recipes after my dear Grandma passed away! I will remember her for her big heart ❤️, excellent cooking, excellent seamstress talent, fun loving personality and her love of her family and friends. RIP Auntie Ida
