

Jacqueline Ann Kasper

May 17, 1937 - July 28, 2020

Jacqueline A. Kasper (nee, Wichtman) a proud wife, mother, and grandmother, died on July 28, 2020, at the age of 83.

She was the beloved wife of 63 years to the late George Kasper. Loving mother of George (Laura), Brenda, Paul (Jill), David (Dawn) and the late Phillip. She was the proud grandmother of Melissa (Chris), Neil (Stephanie), Andria (Brad), Rudy, George (Maggie), Heather, Sarah (Kurt), Brad (Jacklin), Paul (Kristen), Craig (Loredana), and Kevin (Lauren). She was also the proud great-grandmother of Julius, Rudi, Sofia, Vincent, Bradley, Jack, Gracie, Jaclyn, Wyatt, Abigail, Laurelai, James, Benjamin, George, Paul, William, Mackenzie, Gianna, and Elizabeth.

Dearest sister of Floyd (Linda) Wickman, Denise (Gary) Gordon and sister-in-law of Marlene (Ron) Roulo.

She was predeceased by her parents Floyd and Gertrude Wichtman, sister Dianne, and brother-in-law Frank Morello, her brother Kenneth Wichtman, her sister-in-law Patricia and brother-in-law William Donohue.

Jackie was married to George in 1954 at the tender age of 17. Her most proud work was in her children, grandchildren, and her great-grandchildren. When her sister passed away, she quickly stepped in and helped raise her four children. She also helped with her nephew when her brother passed away. She loved all kids, every baby she saw was beautiful and they could do no wrong while in her care. She was the giver of snacks, hated sharing her Kit Kats, and would even get scared if someone yelled "boo". She was a unique Mother and Grandmother. She would ground the neighbor kids (her kids' friends) back in the day if they did anything wrong. She would dance and sing with you. She would whip you into shape but also comfort you in your time of need. Her passion was being motherly but she was a master sewer, baker, and had a pure heart of gold. She will be missed terribly.
