

James Allen-Dean Ciesliga

July 11, 2001 - October 13, 2020

CIESLIGA, James Allen-Dean. October 13, 2020. Age 19. Beloved son of Alicia Wagner (Eric) and James Ciesliga (Amy). Dear brother of Kyran, Kaydee, Ella, Jaxon, Jacob and Weston. Loving grandson of Rich and Debbie Amick and Brenda Burns (the late Lyle) and the late Larry Ciesliga and Patricia Millard and Kenneth Wagner. Also survived by many loving cousins, aunts, uncles, extended family members and friends. James was an incredible young man who loved his family fiercely. He was a beloved son, brother, grandson, nephew, cousin, and friend who made those around him feel loved and seen. James was interested in diesel engineering and was filled with curiosity and passion for life which he used to inspire others. Public visitation Tuesday 3-9pm at Wujek-Calcaterra & Sons, Inc., 36900 Schoenherr at Metro Parkway (16 Mile). Please share memories with the family at their "On-Line Guestbook" at WujekCalcaterra.com

Lil James my heart is so broken. You have been over my house everyday and some nights for the past couple months with your cousins Matthew and Noah. Im gonna miss that big ol smile you always had on your face no matter what was going on. I haven't heard you say hi "aunt tina" even tho we are cousins in over a week now. I know we will see each other again in heaven. But im sure gonna miss you bud. Love you "aunt tina"

“ James was always so kind and loving. He really was sweet to my Sable dog, which always brought a smile to my face. I am very great full for the help he gave us after the historic flood that occurred here in mid Michigan. Jason brought James over and neither one of them wanted anything except to help a friend. For that and all the warm smiles and hugs, James will always have a special place in my heart.

“ You have my heartfelt sympathy in the loss of James. I loved having him as a student. He was always kind, enthusiastic, and very happy.

Please know that I'm praying for you and that our Lord will carry you in His everlasting arms:

The deepest level of worship is praising God in spite of the pain, thanking God during the trials, trusting Him when we're tempted to lose Hope and LOVING HIM when He seems so distant and far away. At my lowest, God is my hope. At my darkest God is my light. At my weakest, God is my strength. At my saddest, God is my comforter.

“ I was so excited when my sister had a stepson my kids age and as soon as those kids met they were friends. I remember him always wanting to be on some kind of motorcycle or four-wheeler something that went fast he always wanted to ride. I remember having some pretty deep conversations with James and I'm so glad I did. I'll miss him deeply

“ Oh James , I’m so saddened that I won’t see your sweet smiling face around Bethany . I’ve known you since you were in second grade I think , as Kaydee and Grace have been pals since kindergarten . You were always so kind , polite and sweet every time I got the chance to see you . You were greatly loved and will be sorely missed . So long for now . May our dear Lord and savior be at your side now . Prayers for comfort and peace for your family and friends . 🙏📖

“ Our sincere condolences to Ken and Diana and all the family. The pictures show how much he was loved, and how much he love all his family. May these beautiful memories help to heal your hearts, bring you joy and in time laughter, and may God surround you with the peace that passes all understanding. I read somewhere that family that have passed are there to welcome us into heaven when it is our time. Praying you will be comforted by that, and know he is safe at peace and never alone. God Bless each and every one of you.

“ *We met James Junior at Amy and James wedding. (We are Amy's aunt and uncle).
My husband and James junior had a good conversation together, we remember him as a very respectable and nice young man! Knowing James sr and Amy as awesome parents to him and dearly love their family! The world needs more young men as James jr, and more loving parents as he has! May God give his entire family peace and understanding! We will continue to pray for his family!*

“ *James Jr.,
I was only lucky enough to meet you a few times, and Rob spoke very highly of you. You were an amazing young man. Each time I was around you, anything and everything you spoke about, you just seemed so passionate. I know you will be GREATLY missed by everyone. I know many people say this but just to make it clear, YOU MAY BE GONE BUT I PROMISE YOU, YOU WILL NEVER BE FORGOTTEN!!!*

STAY PASSIONATE SWEETHEART!!!!
