

Jano Seprak

August 1, 1929 - October 26, 2021

SEPRAK. Jano, "John" October 26, 2021 Age 92. Beloved husband of the late Mary "Marka" (2001). Loving father of Mary Ann Seprak, Kathy (Scott) Watterworth, and the late Ana Collins. Proud grandfather of Lona (Jarred), Ian (Jackie), Seana (Bob), Courtney, Chelsea, and great grandfather of Braylon, Joslyn, and Oliver. Predeceased by 3 sibling and survived by his son-in-law Lonnie Collins.

Jano was born in Stara Pazova, Yugoslavia in 1929. There, Jano met his wife, Marka. Jano and his wife Marka were married in 1952. They immigrated to the United States in May of 1963 with their two daughters Ana and Mary Ann. They were then very surprised when their daughter Kathy was born two years later.

Jano worked at Chrysler for many years as the lead paint inspector. He worked hard every day until his retirement in 1988.

After retiring, his life was devoted to his family. Jano loved going to parties with his wife and friends in Canada. He loved cooking, fishing with his grandchildren, spending time at the cottage, watching wrestling, going to the casino and doing scratch off lottery tickets. He especially loved watching the Detroit Pistons.

Jano was a kind soul. He made everyone smile. He loved to tell stories, and tell his family about Yugoslavia. He loved to share life lessons. He made everyone laugh. When you were at his house, you would not leave without sharing a meal and having a big smile on your face.

“ Jano Seprak was our uncle (svagor).Marka and Jano was like our second parents when we cam came to Canada 31 years ago. We had such a great time together at their cottage. Many years we celebrated Christmas Eve as a part of their family. We miss both them greatly, but forever they will stay in our hearts and our memories. Ana & Zoran Bezarevic with family!
