“ I'm still in shock over learning that Jason had passed. A couple of weeks back I was telling my wife stories of the carwash days with Jason, Rich, and their father. We had so much fun working there it should've been illegal, never a dull moment. So much laughter the three of us would be in tears, always cracking jokes on one another. Such great memories. I was wanting to get ahold of Jason as it had been a few years, but then learned a few days ago that he had passed. Maybe those stories I was telling my wife were in fact Jason giving me his last goodbye. You will be missed dear friend, Godspeed to you. Condolences from the Lasiuta family.

“ My dearest friend Sandy, Rich and Mrs. Cross, may God wrap His loving arms around all of you and comfort you. Your happy memories of Jason and stories told of time you spent together will keep Jason alive in our hearts. No words can erase your sorrow, but know with certainty that I am praying for you all. With love,
Debbie (Gunow) Osuch.

To sweet cousin and Godson. I am in utter disbelief that you are gone so soon. May you be celebrating in heaven with everyone up there. May you rest in eternal peace with our Lord. To my Aunt Nanette , cousin / sister Sandy and my dear cousin Ricky , I love you all so much. Know that I am praying for our sweet Jason and your peace . Sending much love and hugs from your California family 🙏💕🙏
