“ I found out about Dean's passing just a few days ago very sorry to hear the news. I have not seen Dean in many years. He was a very good musician having played with Glenn, Pete, Wei and Dean I know firsthand. Just an update we have lost Bill Poloske, Mike McCoubrie just recently with Buzz Trullender about 4 years ago passing away. Hard to believe

“ Since I am his Mother I have memories from all of his years. My memories of him growing up were he was always in motion and always learning. He was a wonderful older brother to his siblings. Always a neatnik and a creative cook.

I have a poem he wrote for me as a Mother's Day gift that I framed and over the years have always had nearby. It was written on May 10, 1968. He entitled it: "The Fair".

An existence a living creature possess
Wrought by a force,
Movement of touching caress;
Unknown to eyes of discourse.

Features of beauty and love,
Touched with wondering care,
Spirit warm, a likeness of the fair. Jay Tuthill, May 10, 1968 and under this he signed it Dean - the name I have always called him.

His "Hello Mother" on the phone will be missed as well as conversations covering a wide range of topics. I think of him now conversing with his brother in the great beyond.

Much love, Mother
