“ I found a hand made Easter Egg plague in my car that I had left from the last time I saw Jessie. It was a good reminder of how thankful I am for all of the little gifts I have from you. Thank you Jessie and Nancy for all the good memories both in gifts and in great moments we have shared!

“ To my sweetheart Jessie
I am writing a few words that I know Brent would love to share with all of you. Anyone who was BLESSED to know Jessie felt such a warm feeling the first time she said hello. I loved when we spent time together in art class sitting side by side holding hands. If the chair next to me was taken Jessie would politely move the chair out and say MOVE. We enjoyed spending time together at the duck park having picnics, going bowling, to the farm; and having breakfast. Our best time of the year is when we would go to the zoo. Jessie would always look after me making sure I had something to drink; wiping my face and made sure I was OK. We were fortunate to have a friendship for nearly 25 years. Jessie will always be a big part of my life. I will truly miss her. I will continue to keep her in my nightly prayers and hold her photos and memories close to my heart.

Love your buddy Brent

“ Our dear sweet Jessie!! Our hearts are broken but we know you are with your Jesus happy and whole. You sure did love Jesus. Thank you for always putting a smile on our face and coming to visit us in Pennsylvania when we moved. You were loved by so many and will be terribly missed. Thank you for being part of our family. You are and always will be in our hearts precious girl ❤️ We love you forever, Pastor Ed & Doreen 💔

“ Jessica or as I knew her could make the sunshine when it was raining. Her smile made me happy. The little time that I saw her made things a little brighter. I mostly only saw her at church on Sunday. Of course I loved the whole family 💕 They were good friends. God's people. I will miss Jessie as I did Bill a few years back.

“ To the family of my dear friend Jesse. I'm am devastated and so sorry to hear of her her passing I had the privilege of knowing and seeing Jesse when she would come in a couple times a week to Debby's Dollar. She was always a ray of sunshine and each time she left she would shake my hand. She would always tell me about how she just went swimming at the rec center and how much she loved chicken nuggets. I sure am going to miss her. May she rest in the arms of Jesus
