“ So lost for words as God calls you home my Dear Cousin. Jo, you had a Huge heart and a smile to match. This all just seems so unreal. You may be gone from our sight, but you will never be forgotten. I will cherish the memories of the laughter we shared and carry you in my heart always. I can only imagine all that are gathered to welcome you home. All my Love to you Jo....until we meet again.

JoAnn Sheprak was an Amazing Woman I had the pleasure of working with Joann for over 30+years. I could always go to payroll and Joann and I would talk for hours. If I had a problem with my check she could get to the heart of the matter. And her beautiful smile was infectious. I will always cherish our friendship. May you rest in Heaven praising God ❤️🙏

“ JoAnn was. my best friend in school , we wore matching jackets with our names on the back, we went to Werners and drank milkshakes and played music on the jukebox, we would take the bus downtown on Saturday's and go to Bob's Big Boy by the greyhound bus station and have a shake and a big boy, we used to walk around our block together all the time. In our later years we always talked on the phone. I will always think of her when I watch The Young And Restless as she crushed on the Character named Bill Spencer she will be missed I loved her dearly Francine
