

Joan Agnes Kitka

January 20, 1930 - September 19, 2022

KITKA, Joan A.

September 19, 2022. Age 92. Loving wife for 50 years to the late Peter Jr. Beloved mother of Marianne (Douglas) Trombley, the late Peter, the late Paul, the late Matthew, Lawrence, John (Josie) and the late Joseph. Adored grandmother of Amanda, Nicole, Marissa, Jacob, Nicholas, the late Joey and Paul. Dearest great-grandmother of 6. Joan loved and was very loved by her large family and enjoyed going to the grandchildren's events. Joan was very well traveled, and took numerous trips throughout the United States with her husband and family. She also made many international trips. Joan has been a longtime member of Sweetest Heart of Mary, even watching masses online. More recently she attended Mass at St. Paul of Tarsus. An Avid Tigers fan she rarely missed watching a game. Joan's fiercely intelligent mind was kept sharp with crosswords, Wordle and joking with her family. She will be dearly missed by all who had the pleasure of meeting her. Visitation Friday, September 23, 2022 5-8pm, with Rosary 7pm at Wujek-Calcaterra & Sons, Inc. 36900 Schoenherr at Metro Parkway (16 Mile). “ Would love to share a memory of a dear friend over the years. Have not been in touch with Joan in too long, but our bridge group in Troy missed her greatly when she felt it was too difficult to make the trek over here the last few years. We thought of her so often and remembered her sense of humor and her stories of past trips and visits and life in general. We had such a sense of her love for her community and devotion to Sweetest Heart-of Mary Church and her presence at one of PBS specials remembering the happenings around City of Detroit and the Thanksgiving Day Parades her family would go to for years. She was a marvelous woman and am going to miss her. God bless her dear family.
