“ Aunt Johanna was a wonderful Human Being. From my first memories of her till now, her legacy is consistent. She was a loving, caring, compassionate person who shared her love unconditionally and freely. My own memories compare to my Sister Julie's: Auntie Jo's fearless independence and professionalism inspired us both. She set her own path, followed it and lived a admirable life. I will forever be in her debt for challenging me, setting an example and going for it. My eternal love for her and Connie is immeasurable. God rest her soul.

“ Our Aunt Jo was always an independent woman who enjoyed the simple things in life. She always had a smile on her face and she never had a bad word to say about anyone. While this past year has been so challenging for her she still smiled and did her best to keep her head held high and her independence. She is finally with her Mom, Grandmother, Sister and Brother whom she looked for often. May they Rest In Peace together always.
