“*Dear Renee, Kevin and family,
I'm sincerely sorry for your loss. I think I only met your Dad twice; but I still feel like I knew him much better than that from the many stories and loving memories shared by Kevin. The first time I met him was quite a few years ago. He was sitting on his tractor, and he had a big ole smile from ear to ear, and when we were introduced, he shook my hand like he meant it. The second time was 7 years ago, at Deb's funeral, minus the smile of course. You could feel his absolute sadness from the look in his eyes. When I think of Mr. Benvenuti, or "Dad" as Kevin called him, I will remember the firm handshake and the ear to ear smile from the tractor! The sad news is that he will be missed by many; but the good news is that he is reunited with Deb. I know there was and will continue to be much love between you all, as "Love lives on forever", and eventually we will all be together again with our loved ones in the house of the lord...My deepest and heartfelt condolences to Shirley, and the entire Benvenuti and Keyes families. May God bless you all...
Your friend,

“*What sad news. John was such a friendly and enjoyable person along with his wife Shirley. Renee you have our deepest sympathies and wish that you will be able to continue to spread all the joy that you dear Farther did. We will keep you and your family in our thoughts and prayers. Take care you all and God Bless. Love and Hugs.

“ To the family of John. I am so sorry to hear of his passing. I had the privilege of meeting John and Shirley while working at Ocean breeze. They would come in a couple times a week for dinner. What a joy it was to wait on them. John had told me that he grew Rose of Sharon's in his yard. He told me if I would like some he had about 100 seedlings that he started in a bucket. My husband and I drove to their home and he gave me six buckets. Today, my Rose of Sharon's are big beautiful trees. May he rest now in the arms of Jesus

“ So many fond memories of Mr. Benvenuti over the past 45 years. What an awesome man. A hero in so many ways. Someone kind, someone who worked hard, someone to look up to. A man who loved and will always be loved. Prayers and hugs to my lifelong friend, Renee, and her entire family. He will be missed, for sure, but he left his best with you. ❤️
