“ I'm so sorry to hear of your fathers passing and pray for your mother. My parents lived on the same street with your grandparents. Mike and Mary Wargo. I remember your family fondly. I remember your Dad and Mom and remember the day they got engaged. And time spent during holidays and church services.

Your grandpa and my father would have shots together at 1000am in the morning. Very happy times. YourDad was a wonderful man and I will always remember all the happy with him and your mother.

My prayers are with you and I will pray for your mother.

“ John's life story reads like a great novel. He was blessed with parents, John and Sophie and sister, Maryann who loved him unconditionally. After meeting the love of his life, Yvonne his life story evolved into a rich man's dream with the birth of his children JJ and Sheree. John lived his life with integrity, loyalty, honesty and caring for all. I can see John smiling down on us, with beer in hand saying "Don't worry I have this covered". His legacy will continue thru his children and grandchildren, Brantly and Luke and all of us his kindness touched.

“ I met John and Yvonne through their longtime friends Andy, Sue and Donna Suszko. John immediately made me feel as if I knew him forever. He appointed himself my white knight and told me whether day or night, if I needed anything I was to call and he and JJ would arrive shortly. Not everyone is lucky to know who their guardian angel is, but I have no doubt John is mine. He will be busy looking after his charges, as I know he was a white knight too many. I'll be happy to hold your beer as you move on to bigger things. You will be missed.

Brother In-Law John

To know you is to love you, and it wasn't long at all till you became a "Brother", and not just a Brother In-Law. You added to our family such a warm and charming touch. To know you is to love you, and you were loved very much .A poem I found that makes me think of John. He's been part of the family for nearly 45 years and we have many shared memories. You were always there for the family You cared and shared so much. My sister

Yvonne was extremely lucky to have you as her husband. Never did we think that you would leave us so soon. We all love you John!! Michelle & Chuck Kedrow

“ John was a man of few words .... but when he decided it was time to share a few words ... you never had any doubt on what he felt about what he was talking about.

John had many traits we all should aspire to.

He was loyal. He loved our dad and mom and looked up to my dad as a role model. If there was ever anything one needed, you could ask John. He would be there.

He was a family man. He loved his wife and children. My sister, mom and dad would periodically visit the Hreno's and you could feel the love that existed in the house. It was always there.

He did not need much to make him happy. Friends and family were all John needed. In today's materialistic world that says a whole lot.

John will be missed. COVID-19 has taken far too many of us and the pandemic has left a scar that will last for quite some time. It will be left to us, the people who were fortunate enough to somehow evade the virus, to soldier on. We must remember our sisters and brothers who we lost in the past 12 months or so due to the pandemic and keep them in our thoughts and minds. I, for one, will remember John as someone who could make me smile. The circumstance didn't matter. When I would see John it was usually less than a minute until I had a smile on my face.

In our time of sorrow we all need to not lose sight that John is at peace and with the Lord.
