“ My deepest sympathy to all of the extended DiGiovanni family. I cannot begin to tell all of the respect, trust, and admiration I have for Joe. What he brought as a caring, loving person and the ultimate professional to the Progressive Tool & Industries Company (PICO) cannot be measured. The challenges were accepted, the objectives were met; and the stories on how it all happened are many. For that I am very grateful to have been part of that ride. May you take your place with the Lord.

“ Met Joe back in 1978. Long time co-worker and friend. Many great memories from playing our weekly PICO Hockey Games, stops after for a burger and beer. The efforts we worked together on for Precision Manufacturing building the Thunderbird Bodysides and the Crown Vic Stretch Doors. Joe always had a strong outgoing personality, good jokes, conversations and a great sportsman. Joe will be truly missed by the many of Progressive Tool's family. And there were many of us. God Bless you Joe. Prayers and Angels at your side.
