“ Joe, what did you do? Your my little brother, you were not supposed to beat me to the finish line. Not supposed to work that way.

I know we were not as close as brothers should be, but the sadness and empty ness I feel is still there. When you look back, the four years between us made us grow up in two different worlds. We each saw the world in a different light. I see all the pictures of you on Facebook, but that's how others see you. I still see you playing, laughing and jumping on the bed as I tried to sleep. Just being an annoying little brother. Running off to somersault school at Agnes and Elmer's house, then running up and down the block with your cape blowing in the wind. That's the way I will always remember you. Slowly the puzzle comes together. Ma and Daddy on the front porch swing. Rosie and Wan sitting on the front steps watching you and Elmer on our home made skate board. Remember that? Made from a 2x4 and an old skate. We played for hours in front of the house, that was our world. That was the life! One day the puzzle will be complete and we will be there again. Love you always.

“ My fondest memory of my brother in law Joe was March 14th 1977. He was leaving my mom's house after visiting with Donna. I was in labor with my first child and Joe offered to drop me at the hospital that night. He kept telling I would be fine and not to worry about anything. He was right. Love you Joe. Thanks for all the memories. Until we meet again.

I knew Joe worked with him at Sav a lot here in Jackson. Sorry to hear about his passing. He was a good man and a caring man. I learned a lot from him while working in the meat department. I heard many funny stories from Joe and he would have me laughing non stop. He was a blessing in my life and taught me a lot. Thank you buddy for your time and influence in my life. May you rest in peace now bud. May you join God and take your rightful and well earned place in his kingdom.
