“ I am sure you don't know me, but I wanted to share my condolences on the loss of your Father. Ken and I used to sit together in Church every Sunday and greet each other with a handshake or friendly greeting. His pleasant smile and sincere greeting was a welcome greeting to receive. I know you will miss him and when I attend services I will always remember where he sat and that empty seat will be a memory of him for me.

“ There were numerous occasions when I presided at vigil services while Ken was on duty at W/C. He was a gracious host and always willing to ensure that the appropriate set-ups were available for my needs. Truly a a nice individual and surely will be missed. Rest in the peace of the Lord Ken.
