“ Ken's picture is exactly as I remember, hadn't seen him in 10 or more years since he suddenly quit playing golf with us. Look forward to meeting him again and telling how much I miss seeing and talking to him.
My condolences to all Ken's family. We share your loss!

“ I had the pleasure to work with Ken on several General Motor's projects over the years. He had a unique way of looking at problems as puzzles that could always be solved if you could get your mind seeing things more "Out of the Box" without any technical or social constraints. He helped those around him grow their own skills and was always a pleasure to be around on our annual golf trips to South Carolina or Northern Michigan.

Ken was originally my manager on a numerical control project at the GM Tech Center - INCA. Later in life, he was a wonderful companion to me for many years and was kind and caring toward my entire family. Ken was mentally sharp his entire life. The world has lost a gem. He will be missed by all.
