“ Kevin was my first PC when I was first came on board at FCA. He always dedicated extra time to me; guiding me through the new job step by step. He had a unique way of keeping it casual, funny and professional at the same time. After that, I always sought for his guidance, knowledge and point of view when faced with unknowns. He will be deeply missed. I feel for his family. - Carlos Ortega.

“ I just heard of Kevin's passing. Before I quit FCA a year ago, I had the honor of having Kevin as my project chief. I was new to the processes and Kevin came in early just to hold daily meetings with me to help me. Who does that? Just a special man named Kevin. I would text him every now and then and type vent tubes. He would reply back with yup. It was an inside joke. I will never forget Kevin. To Tina and family: I am so deeply sorry for your loss.

“ One of the nicest guys I had the pleasure to call friend in High School. He had to best attitude of any one I hung out with. Kev was our 126lb Varsity Wrestler on the team. It used to crack me up when he would wrestle because it was to only time I would see how confrontational and intense he would get. He reminded me of a Border Collie (kind and friendly until it was time to work).
He will forever be remembered in my thoughts and heart. Rest In Peace MY FRIEND!

“ There are no words that can properly express condolences at a time like this. Kevin was professional and pleasant to work with. Exactly the kind of person one hates to lose so suddenly. He will be missed.

“ No one can prepare you for a loss; it comes like a swift wind. When we lose a loved one here on earth, we gain an angel in heaven that watches over us. Wishing you peace to bring comfort and the courage to face the days ahead and loving memories to forever hold in your hearts. I have some fond memories of Hospital parties we had in the past! Tina, you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers!

“ When I started calling on Chrysler 30 yrs ago, Kevin was one of the Chrysler engineers that "broke me in" to the Automotive world of Starter Motors and Alternators. I really admire the loyalty of 30+ years at Chrysler. It's been same 30+ years for me at DENSO.
Very approachable....It was easy to stop by his desk, or call him on the phone...wish more people today had that demeanor. For some reason, one of his bowling stories still sticks with me...the one where he felt bad for someone in the group that didn't put in $$$ for the Strike Ball, only to have a strike rolled, and that person didn't get to share in the Winnings. Probably was the passion in his voice that made the story stick with me.

Tina, I am so sad to hear of Kevin's passing. My husband was your family attorney and I had the nicest conversation with you two back in the fall. Kevin was beaming talking about your son Steve & his gigs and your girl & your Granddaughter. Normally the meetings are fine, but you two struck as the happiest couple who were truly delightful to chat with. I was sharing how I was worried about my son being a dreamer, and Kevin said let him dream & hopefully he will find a career he loves!! He was so optimistic and you two smiled & laughed easily with each other. I will never forget you two. I pray for comfort & strength during this time, I honestly picture Heaven a little sillier with Kevin's sense of humor it.

“ There are people that you meet in life and there are people that IMPACT you. Kevin impacted me in a very positive way. I worked with him starting 17 years ago while a Resident Engineer at SHAP. He was very much a proactive engineer. He often surprised me by showing up, before we were even aware of an issue. He always had such a calm demeanor and a dry sense of humor that I certainly appreciated. We solved many problems together, most with Kevin leading in a kind way with that wonderful smile. He always spoke fondly of his wife and children and had such a warm and giving attitude. He was always willing to do anything to help. I am glad to have known such a great man and I am very sorry for your loss.

“ Stroh's brewery tour to road trip New York. In April of 1984, I had come back to visit family and upon my visit Kevin and I took another one of our annual Stroh's Brewery Tours. We had a few and took the tour on which afterwards I proposed to Kevin, hey I just bought this Plymouth Duster and I am going to drive back to New York, how bout you drive with me and I have a plane ticket you can use to fly back home to Detroit next week. It took a little convincing and he had to check on some things, but he eventually agreed. So a few days later we set off on our journey down I-80 and through the mountains of PA and through New Jersey, we arrived safely at my grandparents home,

It really was a long trip well along the way during a pit stop as we were getting back in the car, Kevin seen a dog and yelled out run Bob run as a dog was running towards us, He yelled KUJO almost got us.. lol.. (Kujo was a horror flick I think about some killer dog) Kevin a lot of times, would always come up with these one liners, Hilarious!

Well the next morning, I was slated to head back to work in the city, Kevin came with me of course but he couldn't stay at my office, so he basically took himself site seeing. Apparently he ran into a famous soap star Kim Delaney, she played Jenny on a popular soap opera All My Children, he was excited about that fact and I was happy for him, since I was stuck at work.

We eventually ended up going out a couple of times out in Astoria Queens area, even hit a popular rock bar called L'aMours, memory foggy but we had fun. We ended up staying out at some low budget hotel right near LaGuardia Airport. Well the next day I had to go back to work, than I decided to take a few days off, so we headed back to New Jersey, home of the Boss!

Well we got back to my grandparents house in highlands, NJ and after a quick nice polish dinner, we headed out the door so I could show Kevin the sites on the Jersey shore, we cruised right next to the Atlantic Ocean past Sandy Hook and Long Branch, kept driving for a while on over to Asbury Park and stopped in a little ole place called the Stone Pony. We had an awesome time that evening, great to be at such a cool bar, Kevin was in his glory that day. We enjoyed a few Pivos and than started to head back as my Grandmother, my babcia, gave us a pretty early curfew.

I had to drive Kevin to Newark Airport the next day or so and it was a sad time for me but I was happy to have such a good friend do me that favor and drive all the back to the east coast with me in a car I just bought the previous week, such a good friend! I got to see him get on the plane, back than we were able to that and I headed out back to Queens that night, feeling blessed by such a wonderful human being, he had fun but I think he really missed his girlfriend Tina a lot and I am sure she missed him as well. I am sure his Mom was happy to have him home back in Michigan as well,

Thanks Kevin you can be my wing man anytime Brother. May your positive spirit live on through all of us forever, Bob

“ . . . *although I posted previously, reading the posts here reminded me of the memory of not only Kevin - but of Kevin's green 1973 Plymouth Fury II. He was so proud of that car! I can remember going places with him and some others from Farrell's in it. I think most of us that were friends of Kevin's at Farrell's knew of Kevin's love for his Plymouth Fury. “ I work in Purchasing at FCA and had the good fortune to work alongside Kevin in Engineering for many years. The auto business can at times be very tough, but Kevin always managed to keep smiling and maintain a great disposition. I'll miss working with him and look back fondly on our days together. Calling Kevin a "nice guy" is far too shallow a compliment to many, to but me it represents high praise. Too often, egos rule or there is little regard for others feelings and treatment of others. My sympathy to Kevin's family, I'm sure you'll miss this wonderful gentleman.

“ When I first met Kevin at Farrell's ice cream Parlour, he was so proud and in love with his Fury, he took great care of it and yes we would go cruising Woodward, lots of fun. I had the honor of filming a scene with him while in his Fury, memory serves it was Green. Anyway we were two detectives and it was a spoof on Starsky and Hutch, we just reversed the names to Hutchsky and Starskisin. The scene was filmed in Allen May's parents garage by Director, Producer and videographer Allen May with a voice chiming in once in a while from dispatch on the cb radio of what sounded like an African American woman voiced over by Mike Laschech (spelling), all Farrell's Alumns.

So the scene was a discussion between two friends on where to go and eat lunch and chit chatting about their weekend. After about 20 plus takes, it was a wrap and unfortunately that was all she rode in the movie, that is the Fury of course. We never filmed another scene and completed that particular movie.

Kevin and I had a great time, we all did as it was in good fun and who knows that it may have started his film career, as I believe Kevin was in another movie along with some other Farrelli alumns. I look forward to sharing the unedited versions with family along with my basement band videos that kevin had some cameo's in, playing his saxophone...

While we were filming music video, the location was down near the old railroad tracks, actually right on the tracks, right down the street from Yates Cider Mill on your way to Stoney Creek. Well we were pretty sure no trains ran along that route any longer, well while filming, we were pretty sure that we had heard a train whistle blow, even seems like the ground moved a bit, so we grabbed cameras, guitars and Kevin's Saxophone and ran to safety along side the tracks.. Anyway no train came, the ground moving was probably me, Kevin and Al, making a run for it! We finished filming that day, it went well. The song did not have any saxophone in it, however Al thought it would be funny to have Kevin playing his sax anyway to add some trivia to the release of our video.

Thanks for the memory Kevin, you were one of a kind, love ya like a Brother..

“ My deepest sympathies to the entire Kardynal family, what a tragic loss. Kevin was always such a kind hearted soul, the dude always had a smile on him. I have plenty of memories that I would like to share and each one that I would share WOW, Im just blown away.. I just thought about the time when we took a road trip to one of our friends colleges up North Ferris State in Big Rapids. We got back to my friends frat type of house after hitting the local bars the Creek and theirs Kevin and Sheatz dancing and Kevin was wearing a lamp shade on his head.

Kevin could easily crack himself up, but my goodness he had you laughing all the time. We would go to Canada a lot to watch bands and have a good time. Kevin had a couple extras one night at I think it was Charleys Pub, telling me and Rick Beckman that he really loved us and he did as did we, we were all buddies and alumns of Farrells Ice Cream Parlour at Oakland Mall in Troy.

Anyway we came across the border and as they always did back than they asked for our citizenship. I was driving my parents station wagon, so I answered first United States as did Rick.. Well Kevin was sitting in the middle and he was asleep, so the border guard asked us to repeat, so I said United States, Rick repeated it and Kevin was silent. At this point the border guard was getting upset..He said ok for the last time, all three of you have to say it or else I'm pulling your A#@ over. So he looked at me I said it, Rick said it again and than I seen Kevins head jerk back and forth like a puppet where Rick was the ventrliiquist and in a different voice, rick exclaimed United States! At that point the boarder guard said go ahead and have a good night!

Kevin would give his own shirt to you off of his back and would go the extra mile for you, just to make sure that you were ok, even in his own quiet timid way he would make your feel like you were going to be ok and it will all work out, no matter what it was you were going through.

I have plenty of stories and can remember vividly the day Kevin married the love of his life Tina, they were so compatible and were meant for each other. When Kevin would talk about his future bride his eyes always lit up and his entire expression would be one of bliss and my goodness they had a blissful marriage. Kevin and Tina were married at the exact same time my sister and brother in law were married, yes I was able to attend both, thanks to the senile preacher over at my sisters church.. Kevin and Tina's reception was awesome, what a great party for two lovebirds who would start a family the following summer and they added on two more children, making it a total of 3 new Kardynals to make it a perfect circle of love.

My prayers and thoughts go out to everyone who ever loved or even met such a nice family. I pray for strength and courage for each and every one of you, Bob Okuszka aka Boboosh “ Kevin and I hired in at Chrysler about the same time in mid-1986.

Went to each other's weddings in 1987 - Kevin & Tina got married just a few weeks before Jeanne and I.
We worked together for a few years after we hired in, and again for a few years before I retired - full circle,
Friends for well over 30 years.
A true family man. That's what was most important to him.
Something he didn't have to say.
That's just who he was.
Honest and true.
Funny as heck, as well!
Bowling buddy and golf partner.
Truly blessed to have know him for all of these years.
A lot of good memories.

Going to miss him very much.

“ Kevin is my friend, best man and brother I never knew. He lead is life with pure determination, joy of heart and lots of humor. Kind, gentle soul. He excelled as a High School wrestler, Student, Engineer, Husband and best all a Father who loved his kids unconditionally. Kevin's personality was reflective of the kind, sharing, welcoming and love of his entire family. When we were 15yrs old, Kevin introduced me to his family and I've been a member ever since. So, many stories and pictures to share. I look forward to the opportunity to share. What a life to celebrate. As I continue to type I find it hard to say goodbye...so I won't. We'll catch up later. Thank you, Lord...for I know my friend is well in your presence. Sorry, Kevin for being selfish...already miss you. “ Kevin was such a great guy...such a great smile and that laugh!! It was easy to see why my dear friend Tina was so entirely in love with him. All of the stories she has shared with me over the years we have worked together At Beaumont have never been anything but how he was such a wonderful husband and an amazing dad to their kids. My heart goes out to the entire Kardynal family I know this loss is devastating and most likely debilitating to most. Lean on your faith, your memories and the love you all shared with such an amazing man. May you find comfort in each other and all of the family and friends that have their arms around all of you even from afar. If you need anything do not hesitate to reach out to Brian and I.

My Condolences and Prayers to the Kevin's family. I worked with him on WK for a couple of years, what a great guy to work with. Had an issue on 2016 MY WK launch and he was there to support before anyone else even before me during Christmas Holiday and New Year. I was speechless when I heard about him passed away. Love you Kevin, miss you brother. I did have tears when I heard this sad news brother.

“ I have never met a man that loved his family the way you did Kevin. I know you were my sister's whole world. I can still hear her calling you "her love bug." you always had a smile on your face. I loved watching you gleam with pride especially when you're Stella was around. Thank you for making my sister's life so wonderful. Both of you were blessed to have found each other to share your lives with. I'm so sorry you were taken from us too soon. You were the rock in your family. I will do everything I can to do for your family. I will be there for my sister always. I promise. You will be missed so much. May you Rest In Peace my dear brother in law. Now in the comfort of our Lord Jesus. All of my love. Cindy

“ Tina and Family

Our deepest regrets and sympathies to you and your family. I wish I had words in my vocabulary to help ease the terrible grief you must be feeling. Kevin was a sweetheart of a guy and he always greeted people with a smile. I can honestly say he was one of the nicest souls I have ever had the pleasure to meet. We shared a lot of good times and laughs on our many golf trips. I know he will be greatly missed by many.

Rest in piece our good friend. May the light of God eternally warm your face, and we have no doubt you are by his side.

“ A man who loved his family more than anything. I am so honored to have known such a marvelous man. He treated my son as his own, always had a hug and a smile for me and Mikes brother and family. Heaven has gained a perfect angel and he will be missed down here by everyone who had the pleasure to know and love him. May God grant you peace Kevin. God grant your wonderful family the knowledge of knowing you'll never really leave them. Until we meet again.

“ We have so many memories with the Kardynal family. Every special occasion the Kardynal’s had the Miller’s were there. We love all the Kardynal’s. I remember most about Kevin that he always had that wonderful smile. He will be sorely missed by all of us. We now have another angel in heaven.

“ Tina and Family: As you well know, Kevin was one of my dearest friends since Wayne State University, our GM co-op positions in 1984 and eventually at Chrysler for the last 34 years. I'm an only child, so I've always thought of Kevin as a brother. He will be deeply, deeply missed.

Please me know if there is anything that Sandy and I can do in these difficult times.

Love,
