“ Kevin we met many years ago and you helped me through one of the most difficult times in my life. You inspired me and encouraged me. You are my brother, friend and mentor and I will miss you terribly. You fought hard, you loved hard and you worked hard! This is what Kevin did - 1 Peter 5:2-4- Shepherd the flock of God which is among you, serving as overseers, not by compulsion but willingly, not for dishonest gain but eagerly; nor as being lords over those entrusted to you, but being examples to the flock; and when the Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the crown of glory that does not fade away. Kevin, you have received the crown of glory!!! Thank you for sowing encouragement, love and laughter into so many lives. My deepest condolences and prayers.

“ I never had the privilege of meeting Kevin. My admiration, caring and sense of loss is fostered by my love for his sister, Linda Lu, and all the wonderful and amazing stories she shared about her beloved brother. These post tell more of this gifted, kind, generous man. Deepest condolences to all in his immediate family and his extended family of friends and loved ones. Big hug to my dear friend, Linda. Rest in peace, Kevin. With love, Amy

“ Seems right about at this time you would be emailing me or texting me regarding work with your crazy self ...It takes one selfless human to dedicate their life to those who suffer from addiction/mental health including myself. Kevin was built like a machine and had a drive that I've never seen and will never see again. There is a part of Kevin in everyone of us. To honor Kevin I will continue to give back with the lessons he taught me. I will also be donating books to local charities. Dear god he could read and write like no one I've ever met!!! I will miss googling Kevin's big fancy words (LOL) yes literally... I'm going to met Kevin at the gate one day with him greeting me singing the intro to All In The Family "THOSE WERE THE DAYS!!" 🎤 Kevin would always sing that saying it's what I sounded like when I was mad...I will never understand why god takes the ones we need here Below is a picture of Kevin wearing the hoodie of a foundation I started because he was there when I surrendered to my heroin addiction. Your mission was completed with me and from here I will continue the work

“ I'm sure I'm just 1 of many,many that can say the same thing as I do. Kevin was my counselor in 2014. His ability to meet me where I was at gave me the chance to completely open up.
The way he was able to put humor in what some would call a not humorous situation is what allowed me to open up. He taught me it was OK to be whoever the heck I thought I was at that time.
I will never forget his humor and his ability to be Real af.
I have been praying for his children and his family.
God definitely had a spot reserved and waiting for this very incredible man.

“ My condolences to Kevin's family and friends. We met when we around 5-6 years old. Our families grew up together. Our brothers are still friends to this day. He and I reconnected again in the last few years. I was so sad to hear he passed. He was such a fighter! He loved his family more than anything. He will be truly missed. Sending prayers to all.

“ Our lives intersected many years ago as Kevin was rising up from the troubled waters of life. It has been a privilege to witness his empathy and passion to help others as God had helped him. Throughout the course of years Kevin was very instrumental in managing treatment programs at both Sequoia and Turning Point that helped many people that the world would otherwise cast aside. He was a man that gave his whole heart to whatever he set out to do.

Above and beyond his calling to his professional career, Kevin's deepest joy in life was being a father to Noah and Kathleen. Agnes you lit up his life and you made him complete.

He will be remembered forever and missed by all of us at Turning Point.

He fought a good fight, finished the race and has now entered into the joy of his salvation. Well done my friend, well done.

“ Kevin was my counselor when I went through Turning Point over two and a half years ago. He helped me beyond measure, and once I had a length of sobriety he called me and hired me at Turning Point. I will never forget his kindness and honesty. He quickly became a good friend who I could call with any problems I had. I will forever be indebted to him for him giving me a chance, and I will miss him dearly. My condolences go out to his friends and family.

“ What an amazing person with a "never give up" spirit! I've worked at Oakland Community Health Network for more than four years and NEVER met Kevin in person! I felt like I knew him for years though because whenever we spoke via phone, he made me feel that way! Like family! He'd always say, "Sharon, I'll make it happen!" And he always did! So much care and concern for helping "his guys." - Sharon Rutledge, OCHN

“ Most people don't know this, but when we were little kids, Kevin always protected me from the school bullies. ALWAYS. When we were 9 years old he asked me to be the best man at his wedding. The world truly lost a beautiful person.

“ Diana, Chip and Family, my heart goes out to you. Please know you are in my thoughts and prayers. May an all-knowing, all-loving, all-powerful, all-merciful, all-forgiving, God wrap Kevin in his strong arms and hold him next to this tender breast for all eternity. May his soul and the souls of all the faithfully departed rest in eternal peace. God Bless.
