The video was such a beautiful tribute to your Dad. I've thought of him often through the years that I've been gone. I have many good memories spent with Larry and his family. May God comfort you during this time of sorrow. I know he will be missed.

“ It was Christmas Eve and my family arrived at Uncle Larry's house to celebrate. We were last as I was missing a diamond earring. My daughter Olivia had been playing with my jewelry and as I walked in, I told Leah I must really love this girl because she lost one of my earrings. Later that evening, Leah was sweeping the floor and something shiny caught her eye. She picked it up off the floor and Larry said what's that? Leah said it's Jennifer's diamond earring. Larry said impossible. It was found near where I changed Olivia's diaper that night so she must have put it there for safe keeping! Also, my oldest son RJ walked for the first time across Larry's floor on Christmas Eve! RIP Uncle Larry, you will be missed! Love, The Pinto Family.

“ I will miss Larry, my brother and my friend -- he always signed the birthday cards he sent to me "love from Larry, your wonderful brother" and he was my wonderful brother.

Living in Missouri, I would visit with my Michigan family every summer until Covid -- and would stay at his house - those years I really got to know him well-- as we actually had time to visit one on one - so much fun!

Larry, I know you're in heaven with our loved ones that have passed and you will always be in my heart and mind. Rest in Peace. Love you. Carole
