

Lindsey Caroline Bingle

June 5, 2000 - April 11, 2020

BINGLE, Lindsey Caroline

Passed away April 11, 2020 at the tender age of 19. She is survived by her parents; Gerald and Jennifer, maternal grandparents; Joseph and Janet Goddyn, paternal grandmother; Marilyn Bingle, and many loving aunts, uncles, and cousins... most notably, her Uncle Joe who was the person she most took after. A celebration of her short, but meaningful life will be held at a later date when it can be more appropriately honored. Although seemingly impossible, her last wish was for everyone she loved to be happy for her and know she had finally found peace. Kindly share memories with the family at their "On-Line Guest Book" @ WujekCalcaterra.com.

“ It took me a while to actually post on this.. But its hard when you love someone. She was the Watson to my Sherlock, my muse and heart. I want to know where shes burried if she is. It's been really rough.

“ She came into our family on a Summer's day in June.
Her smile was bright and her hair was soft.
She did not speak for some time but when she found her voice, we learned she was wise beyond her years.
Her soft spoken voice could bend your ear with enchantment when she so wanted.

She was loved beyond compare. The one child, the one grandchild.
She was the apple of her parents eye. The core of her Grandparents heart.
Showered with warmth and devotion by her parents, grandparents, and family,
The over abundance of love could not heal her.

We did not know the pain behind those beautiful hazel green eyes, she hid so well. We will never know.

She blessed us with her kind spirit for a short time, for that we are grateful.

She touched our lives with her grace and goodness.

Our Family is Blessed to have had this time with her, the beautiful girl who hid her pain so well, she will never know.

Rest in the Peace and Love of God's Heavenly arms.

We will miss you, Lindsey

Gone too soon

“ I can't imagine how tough it is for young people in today's times.
It's just too bad they can't realize what treasures they are.
Family ties are far reaching.

“ Lindsey and I were good friends in high school. We rode the bus to Pankow countless times together. The bus rides and my MST classes were filled with so many smiles and laughs because of Lindsey. It was so easy to be yourself around her. Not only was Lindsey an incredibly hard worker, she was one of the kindest people I have ever known. The kindness she showed everyone around her was unmatched. If everyone had a heart like Lindsey's, the world would be a much more compassionate place.

“ I loved her so much she was an amazing girlfriend that I wanted to be with forever. We would always talk about geeky show and plan so many cosplays from them. We would talk about our dreams and plans for the future. She was an amazing wonderful person that I miss so very much I'll never forget her and the memories we made. I'll never forget her beautiful eyes her amazing smile and her amazing dorky laugh that could make anyone laugh

“ We used to cosplay supernatural freshman year and sat next to each other every single day. We had honors English together junior year and we kind of lost touch after that. We were really close for awhile.

“ Lindsey was such a sweet person, we had AP Government together senior year and being the only seniors in the class, we pretty much just talked to each other. We always joked around and told many stories. My heart goes out to her family.

“ So sorry for loss. We never know what life has in store for us. We have our memories to hold us up in this sad time. May the angels bring her to her heavenly home, where the Father will greet her with welcomed arms. May God of love and comfort keep you in his arms while you face this tragic event and give you the strength to move forward. You are all in my prayers. Pat (Damm) Dery.

“ I specifically remember spanish class with Lindsey in 2015. Two other girls, her, and I had to make a cooking video in Spanish. She was always such a sweet and gentle person.

“ Lindsey was my cousin and the baby of all of us. I basically moved away when she was born so I didn't know her as well as I would have liked, but I do have one memory of her that still makes me smile. When she was little, maybe 3 or 4, I came to visit our Grandma and Lindsey was there visiting, too. She immediately came up to me and wanted to show me Grandma's cat and all the stuff she had. She was so sweet and friendly even though she didn't even remember I was her cousin. She was so cute. I am just heartbroken.

“ Jennifer and Jerry,

Our hearts have been so heavy since learning last Saturday of Lindsey's passing. I wish there was something, anything, we could do to ease your pain. It is impossible to imagine the tremendous loss and pain you are feeling. She was the light of your lives, and in keeping her memories alive, you are keeping Lindsey with you always. Please know we are sending love and prayers your way (along with hundreds of other people) to help in giving you some, small comfort. It can't take away your feeling of loneliness, but she is in a better place and will never know any kind of pain or unhappiness again.

*We love you,
Gary and Jane*

“ To Lindsey's family -

I didn't know Lindsey well as I only had her in class one day a week but in the limited amount of time that I was able to get to know her, she was the kind of student that professors hope for within a college classroom...

She had this quiet way about her that made her approachable to all students within the class. She didn't shy away from helping others and she always had a quick smile for everyone. Her warmth, intelligence and kindness were palpable within the classroom.

My condolences to all who were blessed to know Lindsey, my heart goes out to all of you.

Our hearts go out to all of Lindsey's family. There are no words to express how sorry we are. We will always remember the wonderful times we had with Lindsey when she was a little girl. She was positive that Ron was Santa Clause and her Grandma Jan would bring her to our office and she would sit on Ron's lap and tell him what she wanted for Christmas. We will have those memories forever. It was a fun time. We are here if there is anything we can do. You are all in our prayers. God Bless. Ron and Sandee Urbanczyk

“ Jenni and Jerry please know that while we can't hold you in person, we are holding you close in our hearts. We wish we could take away the unimaginable grief and sadness you are going through and bring your sweet angel back to you. We are praying for God to carry you through your heartache and pain, providing the comfort and strength you need to survive every minute without her. We pray for the day to come when the memories of happy times with your sweet Lindsey will replace the sadness in your broken hearts and fill them with the warmth of her love, and that your mind will find a quiet peace so that you can always hear the sound of her voice, reminding you that she will forever live on within you. Lindsey was so loved and cherished by us all! Her pure, kind heart and sweet natured soul shined through her soft spoken and quiet demeanor. She was so special to us all and we will miss her dearly. Please know we all love you both so much and are here for you always!

“ My Husband and I met Lindsey at a Christmas party for the Bingles. She came up to us and introduced herself, and I thought she was so sweet. I also remember when her Dad brought her to a Family Reunion for Auntie Hatcha's, and the two of them walked down to the water to go fishing. For some reason, I will always remember that. Our sincerest condolences to Jerry and Jenni. Bless you both.

“ Lindsey ALWAYS hugged you a little tighter and a little longer so you could feel her love for you deep in your soul. There are no words that can be used to describe the person Lindsey is and always will be because her kind are so rare in this hard - often cruel- world we inhabit.

We are not surprised by her last wish and we will honor it and continue to to nourish the small piece of Lindsey that lives on in each member of our family.

We love you Lindsey.
