“ To the DiLisio family: We just read this sad news. We did not hear about this until just now. We are very sorry to hear about our friend. Lorenzo and I have a lot in common because of our sons. I usually speak to him at least once a year and always on "Anthony's Day". Very sorry to hear this....

“ Dear DiLisio Family - So sorry for your loss. The following is a beautiful message I received when my mom passed. I hope it brings comfort to you, too.
Those we love don't go away, they walk beside us every day.
Unseen, unheard, but always near, so loved, so missed, so very dear.
With sympathy, Sheri & Greg Pannone

“ Like a lot of others, we met Lorenzo at the ViVante pool. He comes across kind of rough, but the more you got to know him he was like a soft, cuddly bear. He would do anything for anybody. He could always make people laugh with his humor & stories. Then you'd get his perfect smile or the crooked smile when he's putting you on. He knew everybody and was quick with a handshake and hello. of course the women received a hug & a kiss. You could tell he had an abundance of love.... for his kids and grandkids; nieces & nephews; closer family and close friends. Well Lorenzo, you will be sadly missed from all who knew you. You are one of a kind. And we miss you already. Many prayers to the whole DiLisio Family. I used the blue candle because he always liked to be by the water. Rest in peace our forever friend .

Forever in our Hearts, Tim & Cindy Stock

“ Our sincere condolences in the loss of such a great family man, Lorenzo. We took a picture of his truck showing his pride and sorrow in losing his hero, his son Anthony in his service to our country. RIP Lorenzo. You will be greatly missed in Vivante and building 90. Sincerely, Fred and Pat Marzetta

“ My younger brother Lorenzo, (Dino) , we were quite a pair growing up. Gino and Dino, struttin our stuff. It is hard to lose your brother at any time, our family group has now been cut into half, but those Three Brothers, each okay with a hand on our shoulder... together still, the six of us... We will always remember the good times we shared together, rest in peace

“ Lorenzo,

You will be missed, but NEVER forgotten. You were a man I considered to be like a dad, an uncle but most importantly a friend. You were so intimidating to people who didn't know you (with your deep voice and dark tan) but you were the kindest and most caring man. You were such a hard worker - the best dozer operator ever! You lit up the room wherever you were. You are a "LEGEND". You will always be with me and whenever I can, I will share stories of the great memories we shared. Love you man! May you rest in Peace!!!

With Deepest Sympathies,

“ Dear brother,

You have been an inspiration throughout my life. A role model for all things good, and bad. I can't begin to thank you for all of the outrageous laughs, crazy times and for long deep and heartfelt talks.

You have been more than a brother, you have been a true friend, and at times even a father to me.

You have taught me to be strong and to stand up for what is right. To be firm, determined and unapologetic. You have been and will continue to be a role model for me and my kids. They always have looked forward toward spending time with their "Uncle Lorenzo." You have also been the brother my wife Andrea never had, we will truly miss you.

Thank you for all the time you spent with us and for the grand memories, they will live on.

God bless you!

Love you,

Andrea, David, Armand and Zhanna

“ Lorenzo was one of the first person I met at Vivante in Florida, of coarse by the swimming pool. Yes he was king of the “tan”. I think if I spent a year in the Sahara I would be half as dark than he was. He always had an affectionate smile and a story to tell. He spoke highly of his family and it didn’t take long to understand the importance of what family meant to him. I will miss him, the place will not be the same without him, but I will hold on to memories of a great friend. It was an honour to know you Lorenzo, Rest In Peace!

To all the family, my sincere condolences, cherish the memories.

“ We miss you Uncle Dino! The fun you brought to a party was indescribable! Just drinking some wine and listening to all your stories with you was a blast! Celebrating your birthday golfing in Florida for years was an awesome tradition, the memories from those years are there forever! Love,
