

Louise Ann Shaway

January 8, 1934 - May 9, 2020

Shaway, Louise Ann (Zakoor), 86, died peacefully in her home on May 9, 2020 surrounded by her five children. Born in Windsor, Ontario, Louise attended Marygrove College for one year before attending and graduating from Hotel Dieu Hospital Nursing School. At 22 years old, she married and moved to Grosse Pointe and started her family.

"We were blessed to have such a wonderful and caring mom, role model and friend, who always put the needs of everyone else first. Her love was unconditional," echoed her children. "Our mom was the best."

When asked what her greatest accomplishment in life was, Louise commented "my five children."

Loving wife of the late George Shaway, Jr., dearest mother of Sharon Nietzke (Donald), Mark, Laurie Ziemniak (Walter), Mary Anne Cafagna (Dominic), and James (Kimberly). Special Siti (grandmother) to Katherine, David, Denise (Matt), Christina, Anthony, James and Juliana. Great Siti to Jackson, Drew and Max. Preceded in death by her parents, James and Najla Zakoor, brothers Eddie and Rev. Fred Zakoor, and sister Gladys Howe. Louise is also survived by many nieces, nephews, and good friends.

A private burial will take place on Tuesday, May 12th. Funeral arrangements handled by Wujek, Calcaterra & Sons Funeral Home. Burial at Resurrection Cemetery in Clinton Township.

As an expression of sympathy, memorial contributions may be sent to The Capuchin Soup Kitchen 1820 Mount Elliott Street, Detroit, MI 48207.
