“ Cathy, Alan, Brian and Lynn, I am so sorry about your Mom and Dads deaths, they were incredible people. It was so nice growing up together, I will never forget your Moms smile and laugh!. Maybe now our parents can get together and remember old times. I am glad all the suffering is done and your Mom is at peace. Your Mom is in my prayers, as all of you are as well.

“ We offer sincere condolences to family and friends of Marge. She was so sweet and friendly to us when we became her neighbors six years ago. She always had a smile, a hello, and a wave for us. May she rest in peace.

*Sincerely,
Rick and Teddy Dunlap*

“ We used to love getting together with George and Marge at our dinners and picnics in Brookfield. We were sad to hear of Marge's passing, but know she is happy to be reunited with George. Our thoughts and prayers are with them both and the family.

Love,

“ I remember meeting Mrs. Calomeni at a store with her daughter, and my friend, Cathy, and she gave me such a warm and inviting hug and was very gracious and friendly. She was a nice, caring, and special lady whom her family loved. She will be missed immensely.
