“ My grandma was like most grandma's in a lot of ways like loving her grandkids and family very much, cooking up amazing food and feeding all of us until we couldn't eat one more bite or sewing us grandkids homemade clothes when we were young. All the family vacations, poker games and dinners. But she was a lot different than most grandma's and thats what made her so special to me! I graduated high school in 2002 and Gram was about 60 I think and she did a keg stand at my graduation party, now that's an awesome grandma!! I'll always remember her showing up at the Armada flea market with lunch for grandpa, Kyle and myself, all the amazing times we just hung out talking about life and everything, spending the night Christmas Eve and waking up at Grams Christmas day, her fun, feisty attitude and how she didn't give a shit what anyone thought of her. I'll always remember the way the house smelled so good when she was cooking, which was all the time, and I wish I could smell that once more. She was an amazing person, wife, mother, aunt, sister and grandma! I hope my grandma is in heaven now catching up with Aunt Sandy and Uncle John. Thank you grandma for all the great memories and being the amazing person you were! I will miss and love you very much!!
