“ The first time I met Mary, Dom brought me to the house after bowling. "Are you hungry?" was the first thing out of her mouth and within minutes the dining room table and kitchen counters were full of enough food to host all the Who's in Whoville. Ham, Roast beef, Lasagna, Pizza and side dishes galore. You never left the Delegato house hungry. Mary always welcomed you into her home with open arms and I am glad for the times I got to be a guest in her home. Prayers and positive thoughts to my brother Domenic, Janet and their family and friends. Much love, Kevin Donovan

“ I didn't get to spend a lot of time with Mary, but when I did she always made me laugh. She was the sweetest lady and she will surely be missed. She's in gods hands now and with many family members! 💔💔💔

“ Mimi was an adopted grandmother to my children, Aamod and Mihir. We still fondly remember how she assumed that role effortlessly and raised them along side her own. She will be missed. .
