“ Mary was always such a sweet and caring lady. She and my Aunt Jane moved into their adjacent condos at the same time and became good friends over the years. They talked on the phone every morning after Regis and Cathy Lee. I first got to know Mary as I cared for Jane during the last months of her life.

I will never forget how Aunt Jane's face lit up with a big smile when Mary came to see her the night before Jane died. It was the last time she smiled. I know Mary was a big comfort as she held Jane's hand that evening.

For that and many other things, I will always love Mary. We will miss her terribly.
