“ I love that kid so much. Barb I'm so sorry I had no idea that he even passed I had to find out by chance which I'm not very happy about! This so very much saddens me! I will always hold a very dear special place in my heart for Matt! He always lent a hand to help and insisted that he did. Always had respect. His laugh, I'll never forget it. One of the good kids. So sorry!

“ I just learned of Matthews passing today. I am a medical assistant at the cardiology office he came to and i ALWAYS loved when he came in to see the dr. He always made my day that much better, always in good spirits and we would have true, good, hearty laughs with one another. My heart is saddened by this news. My condolences to his family, may God give you comfort at this time and know that there are people out there that you dont know that are thinking of you at this time.

“ I can still hear his voice "Hi Mom"...Matt was always over at the house with all the other boys. His laughter was contagious and his smile would light the room. He still had so much life to live but appears Heaven needed him more. Rest in Peace.... you've earned your wings

“ I worked with Matt at Jax for a few years. He always made me laugh and smile, and he gave the warmest hugs! He will truly be missed by many!

“ My name is Mary Steinbrecher. My son Mark was a friend of Matt's and I was a Hall Monitor at Dakota High School where they both attended. I have many good memories of Matt. Memories of us sitting outside his room and talking many times. Memories of Matt having so much stuff crammed in his locker that it would never open without my key. Memories of Matt having so many bagged lunches left in his locker that I assume his parents made for him everyday to eat, (but he never did) left in his locker so that the smell eventually became so bad he had to clean it out. Matthew was one of my favorite students. He always had a smile for me and would tell me that if there was ever trouble in the halls he would always have my back. What a loss you all must be feeling. He will be missed. He was a wonderful human being.
